5/6 YEAR OLD T-BALL LEAGUE - FAQ'S

Q: Do you keep score and are there umpires?

A: No. The T-Ball league is structured to teach the very basic fundamentals of baseball only. The games are self umpired by the volunteer managers and coaches.

Q: What size field do they play on.

A: All games and practices are played on at Miller Park. Bases are 40' apart.

Q: Can I have my child play on a team with their friends?

A: Yes. In this age group, since there is no draft, we will do our best to accommodate pairing up of friends. Please note this on your registration.

Q: Can I Manage or coach a team?

A: Yes, if positions are available. Prospective managers must contact Chad Evans (chad@mooreandgiles.com). If you would like to serve as a coach please note that on your child's spring registration form. All managers and coaches must be approved by LLL.

Q: What kind of baseball is used?

A: A soft core baseball is used to prevent injury and provide for a good learning experience.

Q: Will my child get to play all the time?

A: No, not all the time, but a greater than 75% of the time.

Q: What are the volunteer requirements?

A: LLL is an all volunteer organization so there are many ways to volunteer. Help is always needed with registration, team parenting, helping with post-season tournaments.
